Updating of the Biomethane Sellers own Master Data and Player Relationships in the Register of Players is made through Energinet Online.

BfG constitutes the general contractual basis for access to the Danish Gas System and shall apply to the Biomethane Seller. In connection with the conclusion of this Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement, the Biomethane Seller has received a copy of the current version of BfG.

In order to act as Biomethane Seller, the Biomethane Seller shall also enter into a Biomethane Seller Agreement with the relevant owner of the Network Area.

3. Definitions

Unless otherwise expressly stated, terms defined in BfG shall also apply to this Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement.

4. Register of Players

Upon conclusion of the Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement, the Biomethane Seller shall be registered in the Register of Players with his Master Data and status information. The Register of Players (including Master Data and status information) and the Biomethane Seller's obligations in this respect are described in detail in BfG. The Biomethane Seller may request that he be registered as one or more Biomethane Sellers with different GLN's.

The Biomethane Seller shall remain registered in the Register of Players until his Framework Agreements have expired and the rights and obligations under BfG have been exercised and fulfilled, respectively.

5. Player Relationships

The Biomethane Seller shall inform Energinet of any changes in his Player Relationships, cf. clause 4 of BfG.

Material breach includes, but is not limited to:

- a) repeated failure by the Biomethane Seller to update Player Relationships in the Register of Players punctually, cf. clause 4 of General Terms and Conditions for Gas Transport.

In the event of the Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement being terminated Energinet shall record in the Register of Players that the Biomethane Seller is no longer a party to a Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement or a Biomethane Seller Agreement and shall inform the relevant owner of the Network Area accordingly. Therefore, the Biomethane Seller's requests for change of Biomethane Seller shall be refused by the owner of Network Area affected.

Unless Energinet has acted wilfully or grossly negligent, it cannot be held liable for damages for errors in information entered into the Register of Players, lack of access to the Register of Players, failure to update the Register of Players, failure to make backups of the Register of Players or faults in computer systems for the operation of the Register of Players.

The rules on Force Majeure included in General Terms and Conditions for Gas Transport shall also apply to the Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement for both the Biomethane Seller and Energinet. If the Biomethane Seller Framework Agreement is terminated as a consequence of extended Force Majeure, the provisions given in clause 15.7 of BfG shall apply.
